

Telsoc

Telecommunications & the Digital Economy

Published on Telsoc (<https://telsoc.org>)

Home > History > Museums

Museums

The following telecommunications museums are highly worth visiting

New South Wales

NSW Telstra Museum

12 Kitchener Parade, Bankstown, NSW 2200

T: 02 9790 7624 M: 0417 247 417

Open Tuesday and Wednesday (by appointment). Other days can be arranged based on volunteer availability

Queensland

Queensland Telstra Museum

3 Oriel Road (cnr Sandgate Road), Clayfield, QLD 4001

Run by the Postal-Telecommunications Historical Society of Queensland

T: 07 3862 2958 W: <http://www.telemuseum.org/> ^[1] Open Wednesday, 9am to 2pm (by appointment).

South Australia

Mt Laura Homestead Telecommunications Museum ^[2]

Ekblom Street, Whyalla, SA 5600. (Located off Nicolson Avenue, behind Westland Shopping Centre).

Run by volunteer members of the National Trust.

Opening Times: Weekdays 10:00am - 2pm; Sunday 2:00pm - 4:00pm

All other visits by appointment

T: (08) 8645 3565 M: 0417 861705

Victoria

Victorian Telstra Museum ^[3]

Hawthorn Telephone Exchange, 375 Burwood Road, Hawthorn VIC 3122

Run by volunteer members of the Victorian Telecommunications Museum Inc.

T: 03 9819 1199 M: 0417 549 691

Open Wednesday (by appointment). Other days can be arranged based on volunteer availability.

Source URL:<https://telsoc.org/history/museums>

Links

[1] <http://www.telemuseum.org/> [2] <http://www.nationaltrust.org.au/sa/mount-laura-station%20http://150.101.83.163/page.aspx?u=94&print=1> [3] <http://www.vtmuseum.org.au>