The TelSoc Forum 2017 which was planned on 22-23 November in Melbourne has unfortunately been cancelled.

Despite planning this well in advance, we have found it difficult to attract support from sponsors and delegates. This is despite having built-up an excellent line-up of speakers and topics.

Rather than proceed with a less-than-optimal conference, we have taken the difficult decision to cancel this year's planned event. Any ticket money will of course be refunded in full.

We will be learning from the experience when considering next year's Forum.
